Fisheries Review is intended to furnish fishery biologists with abstracts of current literature in sport, fishery research, and management.

One volume, consisting of four numbers, is issued each year. Each number contains separate Author, Geographic, Taxonomic, and Subject indexes. Authors who publish in journals not screened for Fisheries Review, and who would like their publications included, should submit abstracts to the Editor.

The National Biological Survey assumes no responsibility for the accuracy of material from outside sources.

AVAILABILITY OF REPRINTS AND PUBLICATIONS

Fisheries Review does not distribute any of the papers cited herein, nor can the editor of Fisheries Review obtain copies of these papers for anyone. A reprint of an article published in a journal may be available from the author, from the organization with which the author is affiliated, or from the publisher of the journal in which the article appeared. When an author's address is known, it is shown in square brackets following the citation. Addresses of most wildlife organizations can be obtained from the Conservation Directory, an annual publication available from the National Wildlife Federation, 1412 16th St., N.W., Washington, D.C. 20036. This directory lists more than 900 agencies and organizations concerned with natural resources use.

Camera-ready copy for this issue of Fisheries Review has been generated by computer programs developed by the Data Base Section, National Biological Survey, Office of Information Transfer, 1201 Oak Ridge Drive, Suite 200, Fort Collins, CO 80525-5589.

FISHERIES BOOKS RECEIVED

Animal Welfare and Human Values, by Rod Preece and Lorna Chamberlain. 1993. Wilfrid Laurier University Press, Waterloo, ON, Canada. x + 334 p. Available at $45.00 (cloth) from Humanities Press International, 165 First Ave., Atlantic Highlands, NJ 07716-1289.—History, baseline data, and philosophy of animal welfare (including fish and wildlife) from a humanist and political perspective; Rod Preece is professor of political science at Wilfrid Laurier University.

The Natural History of Big Sur, by Paul Henson and Donald J. Usner (illustrations by Valerie A. Kells). 1993. California Natural History Guides No. 57. xvi + 416 p., 16 color pl. University of California Press, 2120 Berkeley Way, Berkeley, CA 94720. $30.00 (cloth).—Habitat, plant and animal communities, and environmental pressures in coastal California between Monterey and San Simeon. Includes sections on fire ecology and a field guide to Big Sur public lands.

In Our Own Hands: A Strategy for Conserving California's Biological Diversity, by Deborah B. Jensen, Margaret S. Torn, and John Harte. 1993. University of California Press. xviii + 302 p. $45.00 (cloth) and $16.00 (paper).—Offers a readable, well-documented view of California's biological diversity, exploitation (including marine and freshwater fisheries), environmental stresses, and options for biotic preservation; an expert model for managers in all states.

Round River: From the Journals of Aldo Leopold, edited by Luna B. Leopold 1993 reprint (of 1953 edition). xiv + 173 p. Oxford University Press, 200 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10016. $9.95 (paper).—Observations, musings, and "decalogues" (top 10 lists) about wilderness living, fish and wildlife, and stewardship. Highly readable; selected by Luna, Aldo's son, who was along much of the time; a rejuvenating visit with the father of all natural resources workers.

Sharks and Rays of Australia, by P. R. Last and J. D. Stevens (color illustrations by R. Swainston, line illustrations by G. Davis). 1994. CSIRO Australia, P.O. Box 89, East Melbourne, Vic. 3002, Australia. vii + 483 p., 84 pl. $95.00 (cloth).—More than 180 species of sharks, 100 rays, and 13 ghost sharks (chimaeras) live in Australian waters. Each species is described and lavishly illustrated. The full-color paintings are skillfully printed, the best ever published for this group.

Where Salmon Come to Die: An Autumn on Alaska's Raincoast, by Leon Kolankiewicz. 1993. Pruett Publishing Co., 2928 Pearl St., Boulder, CO 80301. xvi + 126 p., 8 color pl. $16.95 (paper).—A log of the author's experiences and perceptions during his stint as a salmon biologist in southeastern Alaska. A realistic view of perks and gripes of extended on-site fishery work—although somewhat longer on bears and shorter on public relations than one experiences in the lower 48 states.

Reel Deep In Montana's Rivers, by John Holt. 1993. Pruett Publishing Co., Boulder, CO. xviii + 152 p. $21.95 (cloth).—The concluding volume of John Holt's Montana trilogy (he wrote two previous books on angling in the state). More than a paean to angling esthetics, the book is a plea to stop abuses in water rights allocation, mining, clear-cutting, and overgrazing. Vividly written, describes five rivers in western Montana and the Tongue River to the southeast.

Fly Fishing the North Platte River: An Angler's Guide, by Rod Walinchus. 1994. Pruett Publishing Co., Boulder, CO. viii + 222 p. $18.50 (paper).—An engaging angling writer and illustrator, the author focuses mainly on 150 miles of Class I or Blue Ribbon trout waters of the North Platte in Wyoming, from the Colorado line to Casper. Useful details on topography, public access, management, seasonal effects, and locally proven fly patterns (each with drawing and list of fly-tying materials).

As the Nation's principal conservation agency, the Department of the Interior has responsibility for most of our nationally owned public lands and natural resources. This includes fostering the wisest use of our land and water resources, protecting our fish and wildlife, and providing for the enjoyment of life through outdoor recreation. The Department assesses our energy and mineral resources and works to assure that their development is in the best interests of all our people. The Department also has a major responsibility for American Indian reservation communities and for people who live in island territories under U. S. administration.
